

Year 12 Legal Studies

~ Final Holiday Homework ~

Hey Guys,

Once we get this done we are finished the course.....forever!!! Woo hoo! I am proud Mama Legal Studies!! You guys have stayed dedicated and motivated ALL year – amazing!! You should be very proud of yourselves too! These holidays are an opportunity for you to take once final, mini break before it all starts to begin. I need you to come back to school refreshed, but highly organised and motivated. Take a break – you won't have one again for a while – BUT also use your time very wisely. IT IS UP TO YOU NOW! Well done my darlings! Hang in there; give it your best shot so that there are no regrets.

Lots of Legal Love from your favourite teacher EVA, Miss Proud Mama Legal ☺

1. In order to pass your final SAC you must complete this exercise on loose leaf for an “S”. This is due first lesson back in the classroom.

- Jury System – Page 526 “Case Study” (a-g)

- 2. Read and Summarise 232 – 570 – This is just tidying everything up. Showing you how to evaluate the effectiveness of the Legal System – don't worry!!! I will tidy this up the first week back

- 3. Exam Preparation
  - Ensure that all of your summaries - for the WHOLE year – are complete
  - Read the sheet on your examination and know CLEARLY what you are getting yourself into!
  - Understand PERFECTLY your task words also included on that sheet
  - Use the vcaa website - <http://www.vcaa.vic.edu.au/index.html>
    - Find your examination timetable
    - Find past exams
    - You must print of last years exam and the assessors report
    - Read both and bring them to class first day back
    - You must complete this years “sample paper” and bring it to class first day back

Remember – you don't want this to be you!!!! Study hard!!!!
