

Literature - Holiday H.W.

① Antigone Essay.

To change the law to suit one's own wants would be a sin (Creon). The Chorus says that Antigone is going to die because of the sins of her father. Neither is wrong. Comment.

② W.S. Essay.

Look closely at pp. 58 (from "Morris indulged" to "Or rather not for all; ...")
p. 55 "Catherine received the young man ..."
"He remembered that fortune favours the brave."
p. 78 "I confess I have nothing but my impression to to "They were acting there, behind the varnished stove ..."

③ Revision Booklet.

- Describe - role of each of the characters in exploring the author's key themes
- List the key scenes and complete a brief analysis of the importance of each scene as a potential exam passage.
- Summarize your given notes & other critical material
- Re-read the essays you have written so far.

④ Write a generic introduction for each of your exam texts.

⑤ Re-read the exam texts.

ENGLISH - Same as 3, 4, 5 above
plus Language Analysis of Wilson's article.